

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Stacey J. Miller
Telephone: 781/986-0732 or Email: sjmiller@bookpr.com

STORY IDEAS

Story Ideas

1. A new literary genre: How does a new literary genre gain acceptance in the United States? Is it really possible to bring a traditional Asian form of literature over the United States and find an audience for it?
2. Medicine and spirituality: Is there a growing acceptance of out-of-body experiences, reincarnation, communication with the dead, and an afterlife in the medical community, and how is that affecting medical care in this country?
3. Martial arts: Is martial arts mostly a pastime for kids, or can adults get involved in it as well? How can adults who have never taken instruction in the martial arts begin?
4. Jewish/Chinese culture: Historically, how did Jews get to China, and why weren't they assimilated into Chinese culture? What characterizes people of this ethnicity? How do they fare under Communism in China?
5. Vigilante justice: When is it okay to take justice into your own hands? Doesn't it complicate matters for a martial arts expert to take "morally-guided" actions against the bad guys?

The Cutting Season

By Arthur Rosenfeld

YMAA Fiction

www.thecuttingseason.com

ISBN: 978-1-59439-082-1

$21.95

June 2007